2. Consider a vow that you have made in life which you have either kept or broken. Discuss with your group the outcome of your decision. How has your life and the lives of those around you been impacted by your decision.

3. Discuss in your group what you think it means to fear the Lord. Read Deuteronomy 10:12-21 and further your discussion on what it means to fear the Lord.

4. Living a life of integrity and keeping the promises we make requires discipline and sacrifice. We must follow the example of Christ and live as servants so the world may come to know Him. What promises have you made that you can begin to keep and set an example for others in your servanthood?
