

DINNER TABLE &
LIFEGROUP LEADERS' DISCUSSION REVIEW

1. How does a believer reignite a fervency for the Lord and His work?

2. Why is 'easy believism' so rampant today and how do we guard against it? Does the church demand enough of her members?

3. Why do many believing men seem so spiritually passive? What can their believing wives do about it?

4. Given the realities of 'burn out' how does one balance that with not being so removed that you 'rust out'?

5. Why does knowing this world is not your home help you live a more Christ-centered and ministry-minded life?