

DINNER TABLE &
LIFEGROUP LEADERS' DISCUSSION REVIEW

1. What was David's most significant problem in this passage?

2. What is the importance of listening to the wise counsel of others?

3. Do you think David's punishment would have been more severe if (1) he had entrusted himself to others or (2) had he not repented?

4. Apply this statement to your personal life situation, "I will not offer burnt offerings to the Lord my God which cost me nothing."

5. When you are successful, how do you respond? David failed the test when he faced success and a peaceful kingdom. What is an appropriate response to success in life?
